

33 Days to Morning Glory Group Retreat Coordinator Preparation Checklist

This simple checklist is meant to help you as you prepare to lead your six-week group retreat based on the popular book by Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, 33 Days to Morning Glory.

You will want to begin your weekly meetings about six weeks prior to your Consecration Day (see the chart in the book for suggestions on when to begin your retreat). And, before the start of your weekly meetings, you'll want to get the word out and invite people to the group retreat.

6 Weeks Before Your Retreat Begins:

1. Review all the materials
 - a. 33 Days to Morning Glory book
 - b. Retreat Companion
 - c. Retreat Coordinator's Guide
 - d. The DVD talks
 - e. Information on AllHeartsAfire.org (including helpful power point presentation and introduction tutorial)
2. Meet with your pastor and the parish Adult Education Coordinator regarding all that will be coming up: Masses, training of leaders, meetings of participants, Consecration Day, etc. For this specific meeting, you will want to:
 - a. Print: Hearts Afire brochure
 - b. Print and Review: "Meeting with your Pastor" document
 - c. Review and possibly present the tutorial
3. Form a core team of 3-6 people passionate, faithful, and on fire people to assist you. Schedule a time to meet with them and assign responsibilities.
4. Begin scheduling with the parish for the whole six weeks of the retreat
 - a. Large Gathering Room
 - b. Small Group locations (rooms if possible)
 - c. Bulletin announcements (see examples and suggestions online)
 - d. Schedule registration weekend
 - e. Schedule training for small group leaders
 - f. Schedule opening Mass and blessing of Participants
 - g. Schedule Consecration Day Mass and Blessing of the Participants
 - h. Schedule location for Consecration Day party
5. Begin advertising in your bulletin, on website, with flyers and posters, answering phone inquiries, and most importantly, with your core team, begin talking about your retreat to all. Your excitement may be the spark that just might light another person on fire!!

4 Weeks Before Your Retreat Begins

1. Meet with your core team and delegate responsibilities
2. Prayerfully find Small-group Leaders
3. Hold a registration weekend with sign-up after Masses

3 Weeks Before Your Retreat Begins

1. Train Small-group Leaders
2. Order the materials for all Small Groups (consider ordering a few extra packets for any stragglers you may have)

2 Weeks Before Your Retreat Begins

1. Begin parish prayer for the participants from the pulpit during parish Masses
2. Assign participants to Small-group Leaders
3. Have an organizational meeting with Small-group Leaders.
4. Small-group Leaders contact small-group members and welcome them.
